

Justin Burt

Justin Burt has been a headteacher since 2003, firstly of a junior school in Bromley and since 2007 at Friars. He has also supported other schools and Headteachers across London as an executive Headteacher, consultant and coach.

Prior to headship he taught exclusively in inner London Schools apart from a short stint teaching in two schools in Jos, Nigeria in the early 90s. Justin studied at Sheffield and Cambridge University.

He is a life long musician and lover of jazz. He has two children so is able to see school life from the perspective of a parent as well as a headteacher.

Justin is an ex officio Governor which means he sits on the Governing body by virtue of his position as Headteacher. He is a member of every committee.