

Pauline Hinchliffe

Pauline worked in Southwark for over thirty years, initially as a teacher and then, for thirteen years, as the consultant for More Able pupils. She is now an independent consultant, delivering training around the country, and specialising in Philosophy for Children (as a Sapere accredited trainer), Challenge for all, and Growth Mindset.

She is also a Challenge Award assessor for Nace (the National Association for Able Children in Education).

Governor responsibilities:

- Chair
- Link governor for Inclusion, and for Safeguarding.
- Member of Achievement and Pay Committees.