

Caroline Gershon

Caroline is a solicitor, working in the London office of a large New York law firm, specialising in Leveraged Finance and has spent time in Paris and on secondment at a large investment bank. Caroline values the opportunity to use her skills and work with others on the governing body to ensure that the children and staff at Friars continue to develop, succeed and excel.