

Hin Thi

Hin is a part qualified chartered accountant with experience in various industries and sectors. Past experience includes working for a children's mental health charity, and a housing association. Hin is currently finance manager of a university student union. Her varied experience can assist with understanding and analysis of various financial information. She has a daughter who joined Friars in 2016.