

Freedom for everything

I feel like a shooting star

There is peace and quiet
Blue calm sky and green space
Amazing awesome emotions
Good green happiness

Creepy, scary weird things
Curious feelings outnumbering me
I am nervous and anxious

I try to keep okay
So I am joyful

Water swaying by my feet
Scorching sun shining all over me

Happy not sad things
Courage is building my heart
Nobody is upset
Everybody has pride in them
Delighted, peaceful and mesmerised

BANG! I hear a loud noise
The sun wakes up and the trees sway side to side
