

Walk in the park

You hear cheerful playing,
Joyful laughter
And noisy talking.

You hear the heavenly sound of the birds
Tweeting happily

Everyone's playing around and being free
The sound of laughter brings joy to my heart

Broccoli – looking trees sway around like a tornado
Busy, buzzing bees buzz around like humming birds
The calm streams shimmer and glisten in the sun

Having freedom has an impact on me
It feels nice and relaxing.

See the beautiful flowers, butterflies and creatures
Exploring different things brings so much memories

Shops, houses and library's so much to see
When it was really necessary

Sun shining brightly gives me a tan
Oh I wish I was not in a traffic jam
