

We Are Equal

In life we don't all get along
We all did something that'll end up going wrong
But due to equality spreading in the air
Humanity can finally learn how to share

When you're up on stage preaching to people
Inside you get a special glow and a tingle
All through your arm and through your legs
What a wonderful feeling indeed

They called me a beacon of hope and joy
But see I'm an ordinary man
Born on the same earth
Nothing special you see

We all deserve to be free
We all deserve to unite
No one deserves to be oppressed
We all are the same, together we shall stop the fights.

On the stand in front of a raging crowd
Thirsty for freedom and hungry for life
So know a different shade of colour or skin
Means absolutely NOTHING!

We all deserve to be free
We all deserve to unite
No one deserves be oppressed
We all have to be free, CEASE all the Fights!

Malachi