

Robin Hughes.

Robin is an Accounting Director at a leading customer relationship management software company in London. He is a Chartered Accountant and Chartered Company Secretary and specialises in the financial integration of acquired international companies. Robin is originally from Manchester but grew up in Guernsey in the Channel Islands and moved to Southwark in 2016. He studied Politics and Philosophy at the University of Sheffield before completing a Master's Degree in Corporate Governance at Bournemouth University. Robin contributes valuable experience with finance, technology and governance to the governing body. He is passionate about learning from and giving back to the local community.