

This half term Year 5 will be watching the short film 'The Piano' in Literacy and writing various pieces around it. We will be writing film reviews, flash-backs in narratives and informal letters. Later in the term we will be looking back at the important historical event of the sinking of the Titanic and producing both fiction and non-fiction writing.

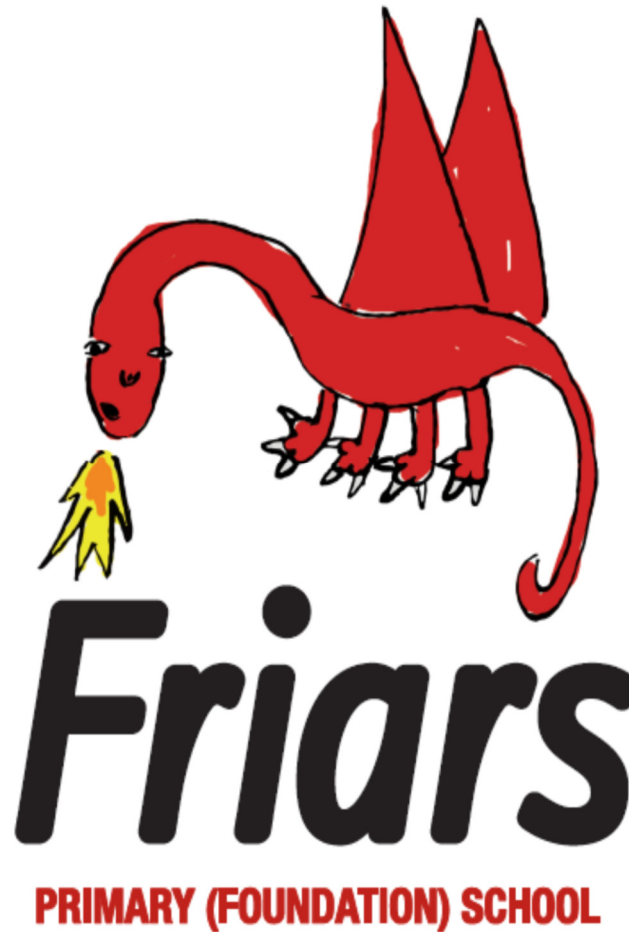

We will be studying the topic of film through various subjects such as the location of important places in geography and the life of Charlie Chaplin in history. The children will be writing a storyboard for a short animation and filming it using the iMotion program on the iPads.
