Dates for the Summer term

Dear Parents,

Eid:

Our Muslim staff, families and friends are coming to the end of the month of Ramadan and will be celebrating Eid next week (possibly Friday 15th or Saturday 16th). We would like to wish them all Eid Mubarak!

Arts week:

Next week we will be having our arts week. This will consist of the children having a magic performance on the Monday and each class producing their own surrealist art work inspired by "The Little Prince" by Antoine de Saint Exupery .

The music/dance performance on Friday afternoon at 2pm that parents are welcome to attend may have to be postponed as it will possibly be Eid on that day and lots of children will be absent. In addition we have been using "The Little Prince" to inspire each class painting the hoardings around the new building development. They have started to appear this week and already look amazing! The link to the Little Prince comes from Guillaume Brocart, one of our parents, who works for Montblanc. Every child in the school will be given a copy of this amazing book on the day of the performance courtesy of Montblanc.

Wick Court:

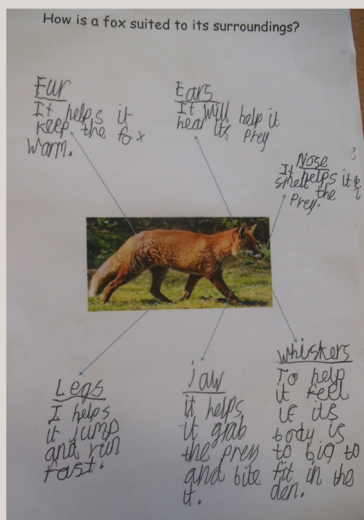

The children and staff have returned home from Wick Court today, exhausted but happy. We have been keeping the parents informed about their progress through the week and there are lots of photos to look at on the news section of the website. We must thank Miss Wratten, Miss Bridges, Miss Howes and Kenny for doing such a good job of looking after the children this week.

Children's learning at Friars:

To tie in with their mural and work on "The Little Prince", Y3 have been learning about foxes. They did some excellent science work about adaptation and also some beautiful sketches.
