SAFEGUARDING PROCEDURES– INFORMATION FOR PARENTS

All people working with children have a duty of care to safeguard children and promote their welfare.

THIS MEANS THAT STAFF MUST REPORT ANY CONCERNS WHICH MAY INCLUDE:

- any injuries or marks that cannot be explained
- unusual behaviour
- physical punishment that is not reasonable or not appropriate (this includes anything to the face or head or using any object or implement)
- worrying things said by or about the child

Staff will speak to a Designated Person in school, who will then call the Duty Desk at Children's Social Care Services for advice and guidance. The Social Worker on Duty may then request a referral is made by the school and inform us of the next steps.

WILL PARENTS BE INFORMED BEFORE CHILDREN'S SOCIAL CARE SERVICES ARE CONTACTED?

Where possible, staff will contact parents, however there may be occasions where we are advised not to by Children's Social Care Services. This is usually if they think this may cause more harm for the child or put them in danger.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER A REFERRAL IS MADE?

Children's Social Care Services will find out more information from the family, the child and other services. Referrals can sometimes be upsetting for parents and carers, but please remember that if a child is referred to Social Services, staff are not accusing anyone.

Referrals will often be false alarms, but staff must put the needs of children and young people first and not take any risks with the safety

DESIGNATED SAFEGUARDING LEADS: Susannah Bridges (Inclusion Manager)

SAFEGUARDING TEAM MEMBERS: Jo Wratten (Headteacher)

This duty of care and safeguarding procedure is the same in all schools across the country and is explained to all parents on the enrolment of their child. A copy of our full policy can be found on our website www.thebridgesfederation.org.uk.

If you would like more information on safeguarding procedures please contact Helen or Jo or ask to see the Southwark booklet for parents, 'Protecting children in education settings'.
